Role Play

In groups of three you will meet in the virtual environment according to the schedule we created, to Role Play as outlined during your orientation. Each member will take turns playing the clinician, client and observer. Everything is set up and ready to go. When you enter the environment click on the landmark to the “Clinic” and follow the directions. I will be there observing! See you there!