

Constructing an Equilateral Triangle Using GSP

1) Create a line segment

2) Create 2 circles centered at each endpoint going through the opposite.

3) Create a point at the intersection of the circles

4) From this point create two lines connecting to each of our original endpoints

