HPV Presentation Grading Rubric (25 Possible Points)

Objectives	0 point	3 points	5 points
Group includes and explains the health risks involved with HPV infections	Group did not explain any risks involved with HPV infections	Group explained only risks to female patients and/or limited to the cervix.	Group explained risks to all patients and included HPV infection risk in other body systems.
Group includes a basic theory behind HPV infections	Group did not include a basic theory behind HPV infections.	Group included a partial explanation of the basic theory behind HPV infections but 2-3 key steps were omitted.	Group included a basic theory behind HPV infections which included all pertinent steps from attachment to peptide presentation.
Group includes an explanation of the oncogenes and their ability to transform the cell.	Group did not include an explanation of the oncogenes and their ability to transform the cell.	Group included a partial explanation of oncogenes but mismatched key intercellular components.	Group included a complete explanation of how each oncogene can transform the cell.
Group included references to support information in presentation	Group did not include any references to support presented information.	Group included a partial list of references to support presented information but not all information was documented from external sources.	Group included a complete list of references to support presented information.
Group includes graphics or pictures that help explain complex information.	Group did not include any graphics or pictures to explain complex information.	Group included 1-2 graphics or pictures to explain complex information.	Group included 3 or more graphics or pictures to explain complex information.