

The rubric below will explain how you are being graded and should be turned back in with your completed assignment.

Components	8/7	6/5	4/3	2/1	Points
Content	Student clearly researched their given colonial person and clearly described that person's life via social media	Student did some research and/or vaguely described that person's life via social media	Student did little research and/or briefly described that person's life via social media	Student did little to no research and/or did not describe the person's life via social media	_____
Understanding	Student demonstrated clear understanding of colonial life	Student demonstrated confused or vague understanding of colonial life	Student demonstrated little understanding of colonial life	Student demonstrated little to no understanding of colonial life	_____
Craftsmanship & Neatness	Student's social media page was very orderly, easy to follow, and used appropriate spelling, conventions & grammar	Student's social media page was somewhat orderly and/or difficult to follow and/or had a few mistakes in spelling, conventions & grammar	Student's social media page was disorderly and/or difficult to follow and/or had many mistakes in spelling, conventions, & grammar	Student's social media page was very disorderly and/or very difficult to follow and/or had many mistakes that made it difficult to read	_____
Time Management & Participation	Student used all of the given class time to work on their project and worked efficiently to complete the assignment	Student used most of the given class time to work on their project and/or worked reasonably to complete the assignment	Student used some of the given class time to work on their project and/or worked minimally to complete the assignment	Student used little to none of the given class time to work on their project and/or barely worked to complete the assignment	_____
Comments:					TOTAL: /32